Top up to travel

If you travel occasionally, pay as you go with myki.

Your fare lasts two hours if you're travelling within two zones. This is extended when travelling to and from regional Victoria, so you can continue your journey when you reach Melbourne.

✓ You must tap on every time to have a valid ticket to travel.

Zones travelled	Fare duration
2 zones	2 hours
3–4 zones	2.5 hours

General information

Tickets for travel outside the myki zones

When travelling to or from long distance stations – beyond the myki boundary – you need to buy an eTicket or paper ticket for your entire journey.

If you're travelling with V/Line on long distance services, plan ahead and make a reservation where available.

Make a reservation online or find your nearest ticket outlet by visiting vline.com.au

Overlap zones

Sometimes zones overlap at a station. If your journey begins or ends at an overlap station, only pay for the zone closest to your origin/destination.

Station	Zone
Southern Cross	Zone 1
North Geelong	Zone 3/4
Geelong	Zone 4

Southern Cross to/from North Geelong, you'll be charged for Zones 1 to 3.

North Geelong to/from Geelong, you'll be charged for a single zone.

Choose myki Money or myki Pass myki Money lets you pay as you go. If you're travelling for 5 or more days in a week, a myki Pass could save you money.
